SOLUTIONS

Defense and positioning

We advise on the protection of intellectual and industrial property rights, including trademarks, patents, copyrights, among others. We have a team of experts in the development of portfolio strategies for multinational companies, available to assist at both local and global levels.

In addition, we design comprehensive plans that include the protection of intangible assets such as know-how, confidential information, clientele, reputation, among others.

Protection of intangible assets

In a global and highly competitive market, protecting intellectual and industrial property rights as well as all intangible assets is crucial. We offer creative, comprehensive, and personalized solutions to ensure their protection and defense against infringements and plagiarism, always focused on practical and efficient results for our clients.

Technology & Privacy

We provide legal services related to technology and privacy in the most practical and efficient way, with a clear business-oriented vision. We provide innovative and creative solutions along with pragmatic and strategic advice.

Our technology and privacy practice takes a comprehensive, multidisciplinary, and integrated approach to assist clients in a wide variety of issues.

Maximization and exploitation of value

We offer advice on contracts and agreements to maximize the value of intangible assets. We also provide support in audit processes and have a specialized team in the valuation of intangible assets to determine their real value.

SOLUTIONS

OjamBF Be Lab

We have an interdisciplinary area specialized in advising entrepreneurs and startups. We offer support in accounting, communication, marketing, and sales to ensure a solid structure in each project. We actively participate in the national and international entrepreneurial ecosystem, generating links with incubators, accelerators, and investment funds.

Creation of intangible assets

The brand is key in any project, as it is the connection between the product or service and the consumer. At Ojam Bullrich Flanzbaum, our OBF Be Brand team, specialized in naming and branding, helps you develop your identity and brand to create the story you want to tell.
